Awrad ahmad

202300685

Question 1

Functional requirements

Id	Requirement	Moscow	Justification
FR01	system should save members' details, such as their names, emails and phone	Must	To know all library members
FR02	Store book title, published year &ISBN	must	For organizing and storing important info about the books
FRO3	Record each book's availability	must	Good for knowing if a book can be borrowed
FRO4	System should when each borrowed book will be returned	must	To always know which books have been returned
FRO5	The system should record the due date for each borrowed book.	must	So members can know when to return a book
FRO6	Store publisher info	Should	To keep Publisher information organized
FRO7	Store info on author	must	To connect books with their authors
FR08	Keep a history for everyone's borrowing history	could	Better for reviewing previous borrowings
FR09	Allow members to reserve unavailable books	should	Flexibility in letting members reserve books when available
FR10	Record late payments and payment dates	Should	Tracks whether late payments are paid or not
FR11	Calculate overdue periods for unreturned books	Should	Helps identify late returns
FR12	The system should allow users to search for books by title.	Must	So users can find books easily
FR13	System should allow new members to register	must	For more people using the library
FR14	system should allow users to search for books by author or ISBN	Must	more ways to find or search for books

FR15	Allow members to Update their details	must	To keep information about the members correct
FR16	System should allow library to add new books	must	To update the library's book collection
FR17	System should give each book copy a unique ID	must	To distinguish between books
FR18	System should record book status and reservations	should	for tracking the reservations & to know which book members are waiting for
FR19	System should create reports about borrowed books and available ones	could	Easier for library to check book availability
FR20	system should allow library to remove books from its record	could	For removing books that are no longer available

Non- functional requirements

Id	Requirement	Moscow	Justification
NFR01	member information must be protected from unauthorized access by database	Must	Member details has to remain private.
NFR02	under normal conditions book searches should return results within 2 seconds.	should	Higher efficiency during search
NFR03	The database must maintain data integrity using primary keys, foreign keys, and constraints.	Must	Prevents wrong or inconsistent records.
NFR04	database must be backed up regularly and support data recovery.	Must	To Protects records against any system failure or accidental loss
NFR05	database should support additional members and books as the library grows.	Should	Helps in growing the library for better future

Question 2